

Heartland Educational Consortium
Alternative Certification Training
District Terms and Conditions
2009-2010

I understand that to be eligible to participate in the Heartland Educational Consortium (HEC) Alternative Certification Training (ACT) program, I must hold a Temporary Educator's Certificate or have a Statement of Status of Eligibility showing that I am eligible for a Florida Educator's Certificate. I also understand that successful completion of the program is determined by all of the following components by the program completion deadlines:

- Satisfactory evaluation of teaching by a school administrator
- Recommendation by the district for rehire
- Attendance or make-up of all classes (In case of an emergency, I understand that I will be allowed to make-up ONE absence within the designated time frame.)
- Meeting or exceeding the evaluative criteria for all class assignments by the designated due date.
- Meeting or exceeding the evaluative criteria for all TSAP assignments by the designated due date.
- Successful completion of 60 in-service points for ESOL
- Successful completion of FOR-PD or another state-approved district Competency 2 Reading Component
- Achieving a passing score on the Florida Professional Education Test

I understand that if I am unsuccessful in any of the above areas I may be directed to seek certification through another route.
